Reviews: The Alien Mind

"I really like this chapter! I liked your phrase "think outside the 'hypercube.'", and the story just grabs you right from the beginning. I couldn't stop reading!! It moves at a great pace, and I really like Rivi and her ability. That was so interesting. And changing something's atoms to make it float...cool stuff! I can't wait to read more. Great writing!

Anyway, thank you again for letting me read the first chapter!!"

"OMG! That was an interesting first chapter. Man, I am glad that I am going to B&N soon cuz I am going to HAVE to get that book!!!! I am not kidding. Man, those people sound interesting. Yes, I said the word "people". Maybe they are all aliens, but sometimes... aliens are more like people than people are. At least they were humane!!!! Anyway, I have to get the book now!!!!"

Get to Know the Characters

1. Main Character: Rivinaig Nejnigins: (Rivi for short) A 14 year old young girl who was kidnapped along with 149 other children and then raised by aliens at a young age. Her alien parents are Ankh and Enuet. While memories from that fateful day that she was taken from Earth still haunt her at times, she finds strength in leading the fight against the vary aliens who are trying to enslave the children once more. A gifted Comp Amalgamator, she can use her mind to meld into the very workings of any electronic device.
2. Main Character: Daniel Peterson: (Rivi refers to him as Dan) Also 14 years old, Dan was raised on earth by foster parents. He meets Rivi on her first day of school on Earth when she stops a group of bullies from attacking him. As they end up being paired together for a school project, Rivi suggests their subject be 'Mind over Matter' as they work on Daniel's problems with the local bullies. Dan turns out to be her closest friend and ally as he joins her on her trip across space to defeat the Aruk who are after her and the 149 children.
3. Main Supporting Groups:
 - a. Aruk: They are the fascist group of aliens who kidnap the 150 children in order to find humankind's weakness.
 - b. Aunantet: They are aliens from the planet Aun who rescue the children from Aruk captivity. The Aunantet raise the children as their own and teach them both the ways of Earth and the ways of their own planet. The key philosophy that underlines the Aunantet way of life is that even though sentient beings normally use only 10% of their brains, with a little training anyone can learn to use all of their brains. With this comes advances in the normal ranges of abilities; manipulating the laws of physics and traveling through the fourth dimension now becomes possible.
 - i. Ankh: Rivi's alien father, and also a Futurity Histogrammer, he can travel through the time dimension (aka the T Dimension) and be in all three time zones at one time; Past, Present, and Future.
 - ii. Enuet: Rivi's alien mother, and also a Herboviromenter, she can meld her mind with the growth process of plants. Effectively helping them grow and in return not only is she aware through the plants of certain environmental problems like drought but the plants provide a continual source of energy for any nearby Aunantet. The Aunantet can absorb the overabundance of energy that the plant creates during photosynthesis.

Get to Know the Characters

1. Main Character: Laurie Kingston: Is responsible for mechanics and special flight control while on the Star Traveler. She is very inquisitive; when the Star Traveler Crew finds the first piece of the map, she is the first one to learn how to use it. She also has an uncanny knack for leadership at such a young age. She finds herself in many situations including joining the ECOP's, being the brains behind the Exandrian battle front as they fight against the Platonians, and leading a group of fighter pilots in defense of a colonist ship. She also ends up organizing and even leading a rescue mission deep into enemy territory (With Chris' help of course).
2. Main Character: Chris Hagan: He is Laurie's best friend, and an Exandrian colonist from Earth. He befriends Laurie during one of Exandra's month long winter storms. He finds himself traveling with Laurie along on many of her adventures and even joining the ECOP's himself.
3. Main Supporting characters/groups:
 - a. Star Traveler Crew: (They found an object on the Earth's moon covered in alien writing that gives them the first piece of a galactic map. They follow the map to different planets that (unknown to them) will lead them to the intergalactic Bible. However, a group of aliens called the PMG tries to sabotage them around every corner in their attempt to keep the crew from finding the pieces to their map and ultimately completing their mission. The members of the crew are...
 - i. Captain Frank Mitchell
 - ii. Dr. Eric Smith (a specialist in almost every science, he is also a bit introverted)
 - iii. Mrs. Anna Kingston (Laurie's mother and the doctor for this mission)
 - iv. Mr. Eli Kingston (Laurie's father, sent to record all wildlife and plants)
 - v. Laurie Kingston
 - b. ECOPs: (Exandra's Caretakers Of the Peace- Made up from various tribal creatures that live on planet Exandra. This organization was designed to keep the peace and help settle the many quarrels that often come about amongst the many tribes. Their biggest threat is the Platonians (or more precisely the PMGs) that want to keep them from assisting the human colonists in finding the piece of the galactic map that is hidden on Exandra)
 - c. Laskonians: (They are friends of the human colonists and citizens of the neighboring planet Lask, the closest planet to Exandra. The PMGs, who have been trying to conquer Lask for years, are also one of the Laskonians most ruthless enemies. The Laskonians finally decide, near the end, to stand up and fight; they join their Earth friends and the ECOPs in the all out battle against the PMGs)
 - d. PMGs: (Platonian Military Guild – The PMG continuously try to keep the Star Traveler Crew from finding the pieces to their galactic map. They try everything from infestation, to subterfuge and kidnapping. Ultimately it comes down to an all out war that will decide the fate of millions)

Author Biography:

I am the author of two science fiction books called "The Alien Mind" (published in December 2005) and "Visionary from the Stars" (published January 2007). I love to write and I have been doing so since the sixth grade. I was born in April 1987 in the state of New Hampshire; I was Home Schooled from seventh grade and graduated at 16 with a GED. Because I was Home Schooled, my family had a big impact on my writing.

I am also a licensed Real Estate Agent, though right now I am inactive. I enjoy Astronomy and all things science fiction/ space related. I also enjoy coin collecting and camping with my family. I love to collect anything space related. I enjoy working with computers and dream about traveling among the stars.

Lately I spend a lot of my time managing a guild in Neopets where I try to be a role model and encourage younger writers in their own works by offering advice, support and insight into the writing world that is at their fingertips. I do the same thing as well on my Myspace site, though there I am mainly trying to reach out to the teenage population who enjoy writing. I am readily available at these places to answer questions and offer advice and support to new writers, as I make sure I check these sites almost daily.

Question & Answer Sheet

1. Q: How long did it take you to write your books?

A: The Alien Mind took about six months, and then another month to edit it before I was ready to send it off to publishers. Visionary from the Stars was an ongoing process that lasted over 6 years (a few of those years it spent in the closet!)

2. Q: How old are you?

A: Twenty this April, (24th, 2007) though I started writing short stories when I was thirteen and then started writing novels seriously when I was fourteen.

3. Q: What was your favorite subject in school?

A: Science and Language arts, I was home schooled from the seventh grade up until I graduated at 16 with my GED. This gave me the added time to dive further into the subjects that I enjoyed the most.

4. Q: Where do you get the inspiration to write?

A: From the night sky, the marvels and complexities of the night sky reminds me of God and all that he is capable of doing. I also have a habit of collecting pictures and articles of anything related to space and displaying them all over my walls.

5. Q: What do you find the most exciting about writing?

A: I have always found it exciting when I realize that I have learned more about myself through my writing and also about my characters when they evolve from what I had originally intended.

6. Q: What advice would you give to children and young adults who want to be authors?

A: I would tell them to read, read, read. Read anything that interests them and anything they can get their hands on. Secondly, they must write; not just to write but to enjoy themselves through it, to go where they've never been and to never give up doing so. They must also learn to look objectively at their own work to edit it and also be able to shut off that internal editor when it is getting in the way.

7. Q: What were your favorite books before third grade?

A: I enjoyed books like Tikitikitembo and Madeline when I was younger. My mom and I would read them over and over again!

8. Q: What are your favorite books now?

A: I love the Harry Potter Series by J.K. Rowling. Her use of imagination and the way she describes the magical scenery around her characters makes for a truly mystical read.

I also love the Star Wars and Star Trek series... they are what I would consider my foundation for science fiction. They provide the basic theories that provide the inspirational recharge for me if I start getting stumped in my writing.

9. Q: Is there any particular person that has influenced your writing?

A: My family has been my sounding board when I'm trying to come up with ideas. On more than one occasion, either my Dad and I or my sister and I have gotten into long discussions about certain events in my stories. Even though my sister enjoys more history than fiction, she is always full of ideas.
